IN LOVING

Memory

MADAM

Ruth BONNEY OUSSA

(a.k.a Da Adzo) Aged 63

Called to rest on 26th October 2026

Rest in peace dear Mother

†

Order of Service

PART ONE

1. Arrival of Congregation and family
2. Opening Prayer
3. Praises of songs
4. Arrival and acceptance of the casket and corpse
5. Worship and Adoration
6. Acknowledgement of dignitaries
7. Biography
8. Tributes
9. Offertory
10. Song by the church choir – BCC
11. Sermon message
12. Prayer for the deceased family
13. Presentation of wreaths
14. Announcements
15. Vote of thanks by a family member
16. Closing prayer

PART 2

At the Grave Site

Opening Prayer
Songs of Praises
Word of Exhortation
Interment
Closing and Benediction

†

Funeral Programme

Ewegbe-Hohoe, Volta Region, Ghana

FRIDAY, 6 NOVEMBER 2026

Wake-Keeping

at the family residence

SATURDAY, 7 NOVEMBER 2026

Funeral Service and Burial

at the cemetery in Ewegbe-Hohoe

SUNDAY, 8 NOVEMBER 2026

Thanksgiving Service

A life well lived, a heart full of love, a legacy that will forever remain.

BIOGRAPHY OF THE LATE MRS. RUTH BONNEY OUSSA

(alias Da Adzo)

Mrs. Ruth Bonney Oussa, affectionately known as Da Adzo, was born on December 30, 1963. She was the beloved daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Komla Adzrakutse (from Alavanyo Abehenease) and the late Mrs. Martha Yawa Adzinai (from Gbi Wegbe), both of blessed and cherished memory.

Madam Ruth was raised in a home grounded in faith, discipline, and a strong work ethic. She developed a firm moral character at a young age. These core principles guided and honored her throughout her entire life. She was devoted wife, loving mother, affectionate grandmother, sister, aunt, and loyal friend, she built alongside her husband a home filled with warmth, love, and hospitality, where every visitor found refuge. Eleven years ago, following the passing of her beloved husband, she courageously carried the family mantle alone with admirable strength and dignity.

She was a woman of conviction, hard work, and enterprise, Da Adzo distinguished herself in business through diligence, resilience, and sharp acumen. Her dedication allowed her not only to provide honorably for her family, but also to make a lasting impact on her community through her generosity and leadership by example.

Above all, Da Adzo was a fervent woman of prayer. Firmly believing that a family's destiny is built on its knees, she daily lifted her loved ones before the Lord—both in the quiet of her room and in the heart of her home. Her prayers remain the most precious legacy she leaves behind.

During the eleven years following her husband's departure, she never faltered. Leaning with unwavering faith upon the Lord, she dedicated herself entirely to the upbringing, education, and spiritual growth of her children. Correcting with tenderness, encouraging with love, and exhorting them toward integrity, she taught them to forgive and walk in truth. Today, her children acknowledge that all they are is by God's grace and the prayers of this exceptional mother.

A woman of profound grace and faith, she devoted her life to serving others. Remembered for her natural kindness and gentle strength, her memory will remain forever etched in the hearts of all who knew her.

She left behind five children whom she cherished, carried in prayer, and led in the ways of the Lord: Huldah Orounla, Michèle Oussa, Godwill Oussa, Anne Marie Oussa, and Jean Claude Oussa. Though deeply grieved by this great loss, they give thanks to God for the privilege of having been guided by such a mother and commit to upholding her legacy of faith and love.

HER GRANDCHILDREN

A loving and protective grandmother, she surrounded her grandchildren with blessings and prayers, instilling in them the fear of God and love for family. They remain her pride and the continuation of her spiritual heritage.

HER SIBLINGS

She is also mourned by her brothers and sisters: Theresa Videkpui, Noah Videkpui, Mr. Yohanes Mawusi Adzrakutse, Pastor Emmanuel Kosi Adzrakutse, Mr. David Adzei, Mrs. Florence Adzei-Awuda, and Sister Abuya, as well as her nephews, nieces, and extended family.

REST IN PEACE

Mrs. Ruth Bonney Oussa has fought the good fight, finished the race, and kept the faith. The crown of righteousness now awaits her. May she rest peacefully in the arms of the Lord whom she loved and served so faithfully.

May her gentle and peaceful soul rest in divine light until the day of resurrection.

TRIBUTE TO

Sister Adjo

By Her Children

Our mother, Mrs. OUSSA, Sister Adjo, went to be with her Lord at the age of 63.

Lost for words to express what we feel, we know one thing: she is not lost. She is with the One she loved with all her heart.

> "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even if he dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die." — John 11:25-26

Our mother did not simply speak to us about God: she made Him known to us through her life. We learned to love the Lord by watching her love Him. We learned to pray by hearing her pray. We learned to believe by seeing her believe, even when everything seemed hard.

How many times did she tell us not to give up, to stand firm, to persevere in the faith? When we were tired, discouraged or tempted to let go, her voice was there: "Hold on. God is faithful." Even today, those words echo within us, and we will carry them all our lives.

> "She opens her mouth with wisdom, and kind instruction is on her tongue. Her sons rise up and call her blessed." — Proverbs 31:26, 28

Mama, today we rise up, and we call you happy and blessed.

Sister Adjo was a woman of prayer. In the secret of her room, on her knees, she carried each one of us before God. She prayed for our studies, our paths, our families, our struggles. She prayed for her church, for her brothers and sisters, and even for people whom few noticed.

We will never know everything God did in answer to her prayers. But we know that much of what we are and what we have, we owe to her knees worn down before the throne of grace. Her prayers did not die with her: they continue to plead for us before God.

"Pray without ceasing." — 1 Thessalonians 5:17

She lived out this verse, simply, every day.

And there was that smile. That smile that never left her. The one that welcomed everyone, young or old, known or unknown. The one that reassured without a word, that disarmed closed hearts and warmed the coldest homes.

Her smile was not that of a life without trials; our mother knew her struggles. But she had understood that the joy of the Lord is a strength, and she wore it on her face as a testimony.

"She is clothed with strength and glory, and she laughs at the days to come." — Proverbs 31:25

Today, we weep. We do not hide it; Jesus Himself wept at the tomb of His friend. Our grief is real, because our love is real. There will be days when we will miss her voice, when her empty chair will weigh on us, when we will simply long to hear her say: "My child, take courage."

But we do not grieve as those who have no hope.

"But we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you will not grieve as the rest do, who have no hope." — 1 Thessalonians 4:13

We have the assurance that she sleeps in Christ, and that we will see her again.

> "He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; there will be no more mourning, no more crying, no more pain." — Revelation 21:4

Mama, you have finished your course. You were not perfect — no one is — but you were faithful. You loved God, you loved people, you raised your children in the fear of the Lord. Today, we can say of you what the apostle Paul said of himself:

> "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith. From now on, the crown of righteousness is reserved for me." — 2 Timothy 4:7-8

And we believe that the Lord welcomed you with these words: "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter into the joy of your master." (Matthew 25:21)

Mama, we make you a promise, on behalf of all your children. We will keep the faith you handed down to us. We will keep praying, loving one another, supporting one another, and forgiving. We will keep your smile alive in our homes and in our lives. And we will see to it that what you sowed with tears, we reap with joy.

> "Those who sow with tears will reap with shouts of joy." — Psalm 126:5

We do not say goodbye, but see you again in our Father's house.

Thank you for your faith, thank you for your prayers, thank you for your smile, thank you for your love. We love you, and we will honor you all our lives.

Rest in peace, Sister Adjo. Your smile, your faith and your love live on in us.

"Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live."

JOHN 11:25

Rest in peace dear Mother

She will always be in our hearts